In 2018-2019

- Forty-five graduate students received teaching enhancement scholarships from the Winthrop-King Institute in 2018-2019.
- Fourteen French graduate students had their tuition fees covered by the Winthrop-King Institute in 2018-2019.
- Thirteen undergraduate students received a $6,000 summer study abroad scholarship in 2018-2019.
- Twenty-one graduate students have received funding from the Winthrop-King Institute in 2018-2019 to present at both national and international conferences.
- Ten graduate students received funding from the Winthrop-King Institute in 2018-2019 to travel to foreign countries to conduct academic research. Countries such as Haiti, France, Spain, and Mexico.
- More than three hundred eighty-nine followers of our Facebook page: www.facebook.com/winthropking
- More than four thousand eighty-five views of our YouTube channel. The channel contains interviews with the institute guest speakers, lectures and roundtable recordings. A great resource for scholars and students: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCeeBzkkER-TAzkVngFuiWGw
- One high school students have received awards from the Winthrop-King Institute in academic year 2018-2019 to travel to French speaking countries in order to improve their French linguistic and cultural knowledge.
- Three special issues of peer-reviewed journals drawn from Winthrop-King conferences were published in 2018-2019.
- Twenty-three faculty members in the department received awards from the Institute to present at national and international conferences.
- The Winthrop-King institute is now offering $ 5,000 ABD scholarship to students in the French program to dedicate the summer to research. One awardees benefited from the scholarship in summer 2019.
- The Winthrop King Institute organized three major international conferences and symposiums.
- The Winthrop-King institute sponsored four lectures and one film screening in the Modern Languages and Linguistics’ Lecture Series in 2018-2019.
- This academic year the Winthrop-King co-sponsored one graduate student’s conference.
- In March, twenty-six speakers presented at the Winthrop-King’s conference “Does ‘La lutte continue’? The Global Afterlives of May ’68.”
- Thanks to the Institute’s collaboration with the Center for the Advancement of Human Rights, the screening and Q & A with film directors of Une Autre Justice was a great success in October 2017.
- In partnership with the Center for the Advancement of Human Rights, one graduate student was selected to spend a month internship in Paris at France Terre d’Asile.
- Two issues of the journal Expressions maghrébines were produced thanks to the administrative and financial support of the Winthrop King Institute.